

In a class of its own

In Lufthansa Business Class you can enjoy business travel of a high standard

Relaxing before departure in Lufthansa Business Lounges and enjoying the excellent service on board – with Lufthansa Business Class on long-haul flights, passengers will arrive for their next business meeting rested and refreshed.

A peaceful atmosphere before departure

In the Lufthansa Business Lounges, business travellers will find an oasis of peace and quiet. Answering emails, preparing for important meetings or simply just sitting back and relaxing – it's all possible here. Thanks to priority boarding, they can also board more quickly and make full use of their valuable time. And with a free baggage allowance of two bags each up to 32 kg,* Lufthansa Business Class passengers also have no need to worry about fitting everything into their suitcase.

Star of the class: the Business Class seat

The Business Class seat converts into an almost two-metre-long, lie-flat bed – ideal for relaxing during a long flight.** An innovative air cushion system enables the seat firmness to be customised and the adjustable headrest provides even more comfort. Furthermore, in Lufthansa Business Class ample shelves and storage compartments*** are available to business travellers directly at their seats, so that they can work on board undisturbed.

The finest delights above the clouds

In Lufthansa Business Class, business travellers are spoiled with specially selected menus and personal service. The drinks menu offers a comprehensive selection of refreshments. So that passengers can sleep for longer on short night flights, the Business Class service can be adjusted on request. In Lufthansa Business Class, the personal requirements of passengers are always the priority.

*HON Circle Members and Senators can check in three items of baggage, each up to 32 kg.

**Except for flights to/from Pune.

***Depending on the aircraft type, Business Class passengers have different comfort features available to them.
